ANOTHER THEFT IN CARAVAN PARKING AREA

Recently it has been reported that a boat engine had been stolen from the back of a boat parked in the caravan parking area. The engine was secured to the boat and I am led to believe that it would have presented a degree of difficulty in removing the item from the craft, which would have meant that the thief would have been in the area for some time.

An attempted theft of a trailer plus its number plate took place just before Christmas, again the trailer was parked at the van parking area, but had been moved by the thief. fortunately the thief could not remove the rego plate. It does appear that the thief tampered with the back gate with the thought of removing the trailer from the park. There is far too much stealing going on in Noble Park. I believe that residents as a matter of some urgency take very seriously what has been taking place of late, it is important that everybody watch out and report to police should they observe something untoward going on.

And again another theft from a residents home where money and jewellery were claimed to be stolen. Once again there was no evidence of forced entry into the home, the resident did call police.

The Noble Park Neighbourhood Committee has been advising residents for a very long time regarding park security (THERE IS NONE) so the onus falls back on to every resident to take all precautions in securing their homes at all times.

Should a resident need information on how to secure windows and doors our Neighbourhood Watch/Eyewatch committee members would be happy to advise. The Noble Park committee is in regular contact with local police.
