Welcome to OUR Neighbourhood Watch

This meeting will be out AGM as well as we have a guest speaker from Tweed Shire Council ,who will tell us about the Bray Park Filtration plant.

This system provides water throughout the whole of Tweed Shire, including, the Coastal Region and Tweed Heads.

Learn about this marvellous facility that is right on our doorstep.

How often have you driven past and wondered just what goes on in that complex??

Come along and hear all about it. It will be very interesting and informative.

These bulletins are only delivered to the area in which we live.

We have new homes popping up each week, we cannot deliver to each and every home but, we do our best with the funds available, please mention our meeting to your friends in case they have missed this delivery.

Please support the advertisers on our back page, they help us bring this newsletter to you

We are the only Neighbourhood Watch in M/ Bah, we invite you to join us on the 2nd WED of Nov,7pm, followed by supper and home by 9pm

Come along, stay for a cuppa, and meet the neighbours !!...

We see many children and adults out walking wearing HEADPHONES.

Wearing headphones while walking can reduce the awareness of what is happening around you??

And, make yourself and children more vulnerable to attack, bag snatching etc. or violence of some type, think before wearing your HEADPHONES....AM I GOING TO BE SAFE???

Would you like to learn an ancient Chinese art that is based on mindfulness, relaxation and creativity? An art created by an elderly woman master and that is based on softness, stillness and peace?

The art is called 'Wing Chun' in Chinese and means 'Beautiful Springtime'. It is a form of Qi Gong (energy cultivation). An art of Mind and Body harmony - practitioners learn to develop relaxed mindfulness, a peaceful blissful state that also contains a 'soft power' that is incredibly effective in all sorts of everyday and extraordinary situations.

It is a perfect art for gentle people of any age or size and the emphasis is on fun and play and softness. We often practice to music and incorporate visual art practices, gentle yoga and mindfulness games. Classes are at Hundred Hills on Friday afternoon's starting at 4pm for young people and 6pm for older people. Contact Daiwai (David) on Mb 0416 657892
